Note:

The below fees & charges do not include VAT, and where applicable 5% VAT will be charged in addition to the stated amount.

In accordance with Federal Decree Law No. (8) of 2017 on Value Added Tax, if a foreign currency transaction is subject to VAT, the total amount of VAT charged for that transaction will be converted into AED using the UAE Central Bank's published exchange rate. The actual Fee and Charges amount will be converted as per HSBC internal rate.

The UAE Central Bank announces the foreign exchange rates on its website from Monday to Friday at 6pm (UAE time). For any foreign currency transactions conducted on a Saturday or Sunday, the UAE Central Bank's rates published on the preceding Friday will be applicable. In the event that the UAE Central Bank does not update the exchange rates on a particular day or they are unavailable, HSBC will apply the last published rate.

Notes:

1. For charge type 'SHA/OUR' AED60 will be deducted from your account. For charge type 'BEN' AED60 will be charged from the amount of the payment sent, not from your account.
 2. For charge type 'SHA/OUR' AED70 will be deducted from your account. For charge type 'BEN' AED70 will be charged from the amount of the payment sent, not from any other funds in your account.
 3. Payment investigation: When an HSBC customer raises a special request to HSBC for investigation of an issued payment instruction.
 4. Electronic: Payment instructions originating from electronic banking channels (HSBC Connect, HSBCnet, SwiftNet), Manual: Payment instructions originating through a branch or a Relationship Manager.
- ◆ Smartform payments are only offered in exceptional circumstances and carry an AED200 surcharge on top of the electronic payment pricing. For further details, please contact your Relationship Manager
 - ◆ These are HSBC UAE charges only. Other charges including beneficiary bank, correspondent banks or other HSBC Group office charges may be deducted from the remitted amount
 - ◆ For any remittance, the beneficiary may be required to pay additional charges depending on the conditions set by the payment system, remitter, remitting bank or beneficiary bank. For example, for outward payments when the ordering party selects to pay all charges, HSBC will process the transaction with the charge type 'OUR', however, it is important to note that some local country clearing systems do not recognize this charge type including payments that are cleared through the Federal Reserve or Clearing House Interbank Payments System (CHIPS) in the USA. For this reason, correspondent banks in the USA may change the charge type from 'OUR' to 'SHA' or 'BEN' when routing the payment to the final beneficiary bank
 - ◆ Inward payments received by the customer may be subject to correspondent banking fees, which may be deducted from the proceeds of payment
 - ◆ During the payment execution process, HSBC may receive, give or share the commission, charges or income/revenue with other entities. The fees, charges or commission charged directly by HSBC from its customer will be as per the applicable schedule of tariff or otherwise agreed with the customer
 - ◆ The prevailing exchange rate will apply to all cross-currency transactions
 - ◆ Payment Cut-Off Times are available on our website, under Transfers and Payments for more details: <https://www.business.hsbc.ae/en-gb/ae/generic/download-centre>
 - ◆ As per Central Bank guidelines, credit to accounts held in banks operating in UAE will be affected solely based on the beneficiary IBAN. All other information provided such as the beneficiary name and other details will not be used
 - ◆ For any inward remittances received by HSBC UAE, if the payment is returned to the remitter as a result of an inaccurate or invalid payment details, a charge may be deducted by HSBC UAE from the original remittance amount. This charge will depend on the reason for the returned payment, for example the currency and the cost of processing the returned payment.

Notes:

1. For charge type 'SHA/OUR' AED60 will be deducted from your account. For charge type 'BEN' AED60 will be charged from the amount of the payment sent, not from your account.
 2. For charge type 'SHA/OUR' AED70 will be deducted from your account. For charge type 'BEN' AED70 will be charged from the amount of the payment sent, not from any other funds in your account.
 3. Payment investigation: When an HSBC customer raises a special request to HSBC for investigation of an issued payment instruction.
 4. Electronic: Payment instructions originating from electronic banking channels (HSBC Connect, HSBCnet, SwiftNet), Manual: Payment instructions originating through a branch or a Relationship Manager.
- ◆ Smartform payments are only offered in exceptional circumstances and carry an AED200 surcharge on top of the electronic payment pricing. For further details, please contact your Relationship Manager
 - ◆ These are HSBC UAE charges only. Other charges including beneficiary bank, correspondent banks or other HSBC Group office charges may be deducted from the remitted amount
 - ◆ For any remittance, the beneficiary may be required to pay additional charges depending on the conditions set by the payment system, remitter, remitting bank or beneficiary bank. For example, for outward payments when the ordering party selects to pay all charges, HSBC will process the transaction with the charge type 'OUR', however, it is important to note that some local country clearing systems do not recognize this charge type including payments that are cleared through the Federal Reserve or Clearing House Interbank Payments System (CHIPS) in the USA. For this reason, correspondent banks in the USA may change the charge type from 'OUR' to 'SHA' or 'BEN' when routing the payment to the final beneficiary bank
 - ◆ Inward payments received by the customer may be subject to correspondent banking fees, which may be deducted from the proceeds of payment
 - ◆ During the payment execution process, HSBC may receive, give or share the commission, charges or income/revenue with other entities. The fees, charges or commission charged directly by HSBC from its customer will be as per the applicable schedule of tariff or otherwise agreed with the customer
 - ◆ The prevailing exchange rate will apply to all cross-currency transactions
 - ◆ Payment Cut-Off Times are available on our website, under Transfers and Payments for more details: <https://www.business.hsbc.ae/en-gb/ae/generic/download-centre>
 - ◆ As per Central Bank guidelines, credit to accounts held in banks operating in UAE will be affected solely based on the beneficiary IBAN. All other information provided such as the beneficiary name and other details will not be used
 - ◆ For any inward remittances received by HSBC UAE, if the payment is returned to the remitter as a result of an inaccurate or invalid payment details, a charge may be deducted by HSBC UAE from the original remittance amount. This charge will depend on the reason for the returned payment, for example the currency and the cost of processing the returned payment
